

Posterior of ω_{S0_SOL} vs. Prior= $N(0,1)$

(Posterior samples should be narrower than (or shifted from) the prior)

(If posterior is hugging 0, then data isn't identifying subject variation)